Have an interest in World War II?

Gabrielle Schmidt's classroom will put people back in WWII. Most of her classroom will have original newspapers, posters and flyers from 1939-1945. The room has numerous uniforms, and pictures of those who fought and died in WWII. Come to her room and ask questions about the War.

Gabrielle had numerous family and friends who fought and survived the war, including friends who were spies, and Holocaust survivors. See and touch things that are generally only in museums.
